LADY BETTY

Across the Water

—BY—
C. N. and A. M. Williamson

Authors of "My Friend the Chaffeur"

DON'T miss making the acquaintance of Lady Betty. Your regrets will be everlasting if you fail to become familiar with her and her ingenious, vivacious impressions of America and American customs. Lady Betty is the youngest daughter of a noble English family, who seems to have appropriated all the good looks, all the wit and all the brains of the line. When she is sent to America (to give her elder and less attractive sister a chance to marry) she comes with her eyes and her mind wide open. She is under the care of a leader of the New York and Newport swell set, and gets every chance to be in and see things. After all she marries a good, honest American man after a series of interesting experience.

FOUR DRUNKS FACED HARMER

Police court had hardly an average Monday morning attendance but at that four of the cut-ups were present. Not a dollar was in the bunch but three thought they could make arrangements to pay.

The fourth knew positively that he could not pay and was sent up for five days. He was Tom Cottingham, who didn't like the looks of Officer Owens Saturday night and wouldn't let that officer arrest him without assistance and it came in the person of Officers Whyte and Lewis.

J. L. Watson, by McLeod and Nelson, Charles Miller, by the same officers, and Wattie Rymmer, by Burke, were plain drunks at $4.60 each and all thought they could raise the money.

SECOND TEAM DEFEATED BY BROAD OAK NINE

The Clarksburg second team was overwhelmingly defeated by the Broad Oaks team at Grasselli Sunday morning. The local team lost through their inability to hit James the Broad Oaks pitcher, who had fourteen strike-outs to his credit, while only four hits were made off his delivery. Landy, for the second team, was batted by the winners at will. The final score was 7 to 0. This makes one game each for the two teams and the third game is looked forward to with much interest. Batteries, Clarksburg, Landy and McKinney; Broad Oak, James and McMillan.

"WATCH FOR THE LIGHT."

Are you Suffering
With Catarrh?

The first stage of catarrh is caused by taking cold. Most people pay little attention to a cold. In a little while a case of catarrh is the result. Catarrh is a local disease, caused by an inflammation of the mucous membrane of the nasal and other passages. The nasal passages being most exposed to the changes of the weather are the first to become affected. Each cold taken aggravates the disease, and it will be noticed that colds are taken much more easily as the disease progresses. Soon the accumulation of mucus begins to drop into the throat, then on down into the lungs, impregnating both with the disease. If proper medicines are applied there is no reason why catarrh cannot be cured.
